Jennine Rogers Becomes Mrs. G. W. Walsh In Formal Ceremony at Church of Nazarene

Misses Barbara Walsh and Sandra Finner wearing identical gowns of blue crystalline with pink carnation corsages lighted the candles on the flower banked altar in the Church of the Nazarene in Lynwood, on Friday evening, June 29, at 8 for the wedding uniting Miss Jennine Rae Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rogers, 3320 West 187th St., and Gerald William Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Walsh, of Inglewood.

Mrs. Frank Vess at the organ played the wedding music as the 300 guests assembled. She also accompanied Larry Walker who sang "Because," "My Beloved" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Entering the church first were the four bridesmaids, Misses Doris Cole and Renee Barnes and Mmes. Glenn Marsh and George Ecker. They wore gowns of rose crystalline sheath with tulle overskirts. Each carried a fan bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Miss Billy Lynn was the maid of honor. Her gown was of embroidered pink crystalline with a net overskirt and she carried a cascade of pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Carolyn White was the junior bridesmaid. She wore pink crystalline and carried a fan of pink rosebuds. Little Jane Pelezare in a floor length gown identical to the bride's, and carrying a basket of rose petals, was the flower girl.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace and white silk crystalline fashioned on Colonial lines. Her illusion veil was held by a jeweled tiara and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircled by white orchids and stephanotis.

Charles Walsh served as the best man and ushers were Tony Leon, Jack Pollack, Gene Ezell, Pat Walsh and Dennis Householder, junior usher. The Rev. L. A. Whitcomb conducted the double ring ceremony.

A reception was held in the church social hall and the couple spent a honeymoon at a mountain resort.

They have established their new home in Lawndale.

The bride is a Leuzinger High school graduate and attended El Camino college where she was affiliated with Chi Theta Chi sorority.

The bridegroom was graduated from Inglewood High school and attends El Camino where he is a member of Chi Gamma Iota. Mr. Walsh served four years with the United States Army and is now majoring in engineering.
